

JOB FAIR

Where:

ACUITY BRANDS LIGHTING

1615 E. Elmore St.
Crawfordsville, IN 47933

When:

Saturday June 20, 2009
8am to 12pm

Manufacturing Operators:

Key Responsibilities & Qualifications

Assembly of innovative lighting products in an employee-friendly manufacturing facility. Applicants must be able to work any shift, be at least 18 years of age, and able to produce proof of a valid high school diploma or equivalent. Starting pay is $10.84 per hour plus a $.30 shift differential for 2nd/3rd shifts

Manufacturing Engineer :

Key Responsibilities

Identify or receive tooling & fixture projects from the manufacturing floor and implement through design or purchase.

Responsible for training programmers to program Mastercam software so they have the latest versions. Program Mastercam files as needed and maintain the Mastercam software and post-processor so programs post correctly for the routers.

Identify improvement projects to increase productivity, throughput, and capacity in the fabrication and paint areas. Manage projects from start to completion with expectation on meeting deadlines and projected project goals.

Support ABS (Kaizen) events with special tooling requests to get groups items they may not be able to get anywhere else.

Participate and lead Standard Work, 5S, SMED, TPM, 3P Kaizen events. Validate ideas from Kaizen events

Minimum Qualifications

BS in Mechanical engineering or related field, 0-3 years experience, working knowledge of Microsoft Office and proficiency in: AutoCAD, ProE, Inventor and Mastercam

Production Facilitator

Key Responsibilities

Manage Focus Factory Materials to ensure prompt manufacturing of customer orders, including the use of KanBan and non-standard items to maximize customer service while reducing inventory levels. Manage the visual schedule process by spending time on the manufacturing floor and interacting with customer care to manage business opportunities and expedites. Use independent judgment with external suppliers to develop relationships and negotiate material costs.

Set up and maintain KanBan with internal and external suppliers.

Minimum Requirements

High School Diploma or GED and 2-5 years with knowledge of Oracle and MS office. Verbal and written communication skills, along with ability to multi-task and work independently.

Preferred Requirements

Thorough knowledge of Lean Manufacturing principles.

As the recognized innovative leader in the lighting industry, our people are committed to applying their unrivaled experience and lighting expertise to enhancing the overall customer experience.

We invite dependable, qualified individuals to join our growing organization with opportunities for advancement.

Tobacco - Free and Drug - Free by Choice

 No phone calls  No resumes taken before event ****

(No agencies, please)